

ESL Brains

Web experience

1. Brainstorm the words that you associate with the lesson title. Think of three nouns, three verbs and three adjectives.
2. Watch a video [https://youtu.be/sAakch9kTWU] and say what it advertises.
3. Match the halves to create examples of the things people often do on websites.

A. agree to get notifications about	1. blocker
B. provide	2. special offers
C. disable an ad	3. personal data
D. accept	4. cookies
E. ask a question in	5. conditions
F. subscribe to	6. windows
G. accept terms and	7. a newsletter
H. block pop-up	8. a live chat box
4. Watch the video again and tick the things in ex. 3 that the woman is asked to do.
5. Discuss the questions.
 - Which part of the video was the funniest?
 - Do you sometimes get irritated by the things presented in the video? What annoys you the most?
 - Are websites more user-friendly than they were in the past? Give examples.
 - In your experience, when do you have to do the things below? How useful are they? What happens if you don't do them?
 - accept cookies
 - subscribe to a newsletter
 - provide personal data
 - disable an ad blocker

6. Read the comments and decide what kind of website each of them might refer to. Ignore the gaps for now.

- A. Last month I subscribed to get full _____ to the website but I soon realised I prefer reading print. I tried to _____ but I couldn't find that option anywhere.
- B. I forgot my password, so I used the live chat box to ask what to do. I think I talked to a _____ because I kept getting the same message: "I'm not sure I understand. Did you mean 'How to apply for a passport?'" . I still don't know how to change my password.
- C. I'm really glad I discovered your website. It's _____ and full of interesting _____. I've also subscribed to your newsletter and I love the learning tips you've been sending me.
- D. I like your website, it's very easy to _____. But I don't understand why I have to create an account if I just want to order something. I really don't want your company to _____ my personal data.

7. Complete the gaps in ex. 6 with the words in the boxes.

access

bot

content navigate

store

user-friendly

unsubscribe

8. Discuss the questions.

- Have you had similar experiences to those described in the comments in ex. 6? What happened exactly?
- How often do you rate websites or apps or leave online comments?
- When you use an online service, do you check the reviews? Why/Why not?
- What type of content do you usually look for online? Consider topics and different media.
- Think of a website which is easy to navigate. How do you find information there?

