

When graffiti ends up in art galleries

1. Discuss questions below.

- What's your favourite type of art and art style?
- Have you ever tried drawing, painting, sculpting, or any other artistic activities?
- How often do you go to museums or art galleries?
- What artists or designers do you know? Who's your favourite one and why?
- Why do you think art is an important part of the culture of a given country?
- Do you think that nowadays anyone can become an artist?
- Is graffiti art in your opinion? Why/why not?

2. Complete the sentences below with the correct forms of the words given in brackets.

- a) For safety reasons, the businessman who bought a painting wants to remain (ANONYMITY)
- b) Happy is a talented teenage with a passion for spray paint and hip hop. (MURAL)
- c) When you talk to Graffiti Grandma, you might your opinion about street art. (SOFT)
- d) There is an of paintings by Pablo Picasso in New York. (EXHIBIT)
- e) The of the museum will give the reporter an interview about graffiti as an art form. (CURATE)
- f) The many cave paintings in France and Spain show the artistic of the modern human in Europe. (CREATE)
- g) An art is a piece of modern art which can include objects, light, sound, etc. (INSTALL)
- h) Graffiti and street art have become an art which is hard to stop. (MOVE)

When graffiti ends up in art galleries

3. Match underlined words and phrases from sentences a-d with their meanings 1-4.

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) Graffiti artists are getting their due now because people have started to think about them as real artists. | 1) to grow or develop successfully |
| b) He despised himself for being such a coward and not helping that woman. | 2) to hate someone or something and have no respect for them |
| c) During the late 1950s and 1960s artists with a wide range of interests began to push the boundaries of contemporary art. | 3) to be praised even though you are usually criticized or disliked |
| d) The economy is booming and many small businesses are flourishing . | 4) to discover something new, make limits go further out |

4. Watch a video [http://bit.ly/CBSBeyondStreets] about street art and answer the questions below.

- Did graffiti start in New York?
- What is Beyond the Streets?
- Is the show's curator still a graffiti artist?
- How many artists are featured at the exhibition?
- When did photographer Martha Cooper publish her book?
- Where does the graffiti and street art festival take place?

5. Watch the video again and complete sentences with one word each.

- Graffiti and street art was out of
- I was with graffiti as a kid and I still am.
- I want people to come here and understand the true of graffiti.
- For weeks, a team of designers, carpenters and artists worked feverishly to put together the show in a new building.
- Of course, it's and it is a crime, and that is what's so interesting about it.
- It's funny how we have our opinion.

6. Discuss statements about graffiti. Do you agree or disagree with them? Why?

- Graffiti is just vandalism and it doesn't have any artistic value.
- Street artists should stick to painting on legal graffiti walls and not committing a crime.
- When graffiti ends up in galleries, it stops being graffiti.
- Thanks to graffiti and street art, cities are colourful, lively and look more interesting.
- Graffiti is an effective way of spreading political messages.